

Information for visiting researcher

Welcome to the Neubrandenburg University of Applied Sciences (HSNB)! We are pleased that you have decided to visit our University to research or teach. Academics like you contribute to the internationalisation of our institution.

What is your status at HSNB?

Your status at the Neubrandenburg University of Applied Sciences is: Visiting researcher.

Are you employed at HSNB?

No, as a visiting researcher at HSNB you are not an employee. There is no employment relationship.

Which types of insurance should you have or organise?

Visiting researchers are not covered by liability, health or accident insurance through HSNB. You must organise this insurance coverage yourself and, if applicable, at your own expense. Liability insurance covers any damage that you cause either intentionally or negligently as a visiting researcher at HSNB. Health insurance and accident insurance are used to cover the costs associated with medical care in the event of illness or an accident or if surviving dependants are to receive compensation in the form of cash benefits.

Which personal data will be collected and processed?

The following personal data may be collected and processed as part of your stay at HSNB: name; gender; where applicable, your academic qualification; nationality; originating appointment/employer and country; period of stay; objective/purpose of the stay; where applicable, the type of funding. This data will be recorded, electronically processed and used within HSNB to complete any necessary tasks. This also includes statistical information that cannot be used to identify you personally, that is, the information has been anonymised, and which may be forwarded to scholarship providers as needed. Your personal data will be deleted after five years at the latest.

We wish you a successful stay at the Neubrandenburg University of Applied Sciences.
